

Bernardo Miranda Vasconcellos

Data Analysis & International Relations

Profile

I've graduated in International Relations and I'm specializing in Data Analysis. My immediate objective is to become a fully-fledged Data and Business Analyst. My latest (and in progress) ambition is achieving Microsoft's PL300 Power BI Certification. I have around 900 hours of volunteering work and I have an analytical personal and professional profile. I aim to provide services with innovation and strategic communication.
